

SHORT BIO -MONICA EMMANUEL

Dr Emmanuel Monica, an International Relations and Peace and Conflict Specialist is currently a Research Fellow and the Nigeria-ECOWAS Coordinator of the International Energy Charter Secretariat in Brussels and focuses on moving the 16 countries of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and Nigeria towards a stronger and closer relationship with the International Energy Charter (IEC), with a view of these countries joining the Charter constituency.

Dr Emmanuel was educated in Nigeria where she obtained Bsc.(Political Science) and Msc. (International Relations and Strategic Studies) degrees respectively. She also holds a Doctorate Degree in International Relations of the Geneva School of Diplomacy and International Relations, Switzerland.

Dr Emmanuel also worked for over ten years as a Research Fellow with the Centre for Strategic Research and Studies, Department of Conflict, Peacekeeping and Humanitarian Affairs, National Defence College, Abuja, Nigeria. Dr. Emmanuel's work focuses on issues of international relations, peace and conflict studies, peace building, peace support operations, women, children, youth and development in Africa, Nigeria and in North-Eastern Nigeria in particular.

She is published in journals and her latest book published in Switzerland in April 2016 is titled: Federalism in Nigeria: Between Divisions in Conflict and Stability in Diversity.

Short Bio of Monica Emmanuel-----Abuja, Nigeria 2016