

International Association for Intercultural Dialogue and Geostrategic Studies

Switzerland, Geneva and Zurich

The “International Association for Intercultural Dialogue and Geostrategic Studies” (IAGS) and the “Geneva International Peace Research Institute” (GIPRI) invite to a roundtable at expert level about “Modern global economic, political and social crises and risks”.

The roundtable is planned for the 21st of September, 15:00 (GMT+2) in online format (Zoom).

The main goal of the roundtable is to bring together international experts for a free and open discussion. Proposed issues are:

- risks and opportunities for international security
- the consequences of the global economic, political and social crisis
- the split of the global world: Western vs non-Western world
- different models of civilization: accommodation vs rivalry
- different perceptions of the present political and social world landscape: reason for a conflict or an opportunity for cooperation?

Contributions by the participants should be up to 7 min. The exchange of opinions and discussion among panel members is also an important part of the event. Publication of the reports is to be discussed.

To take part in the event it is necessary to fill out the participation form and mail it before 15th of September, 2022 to Prof. Dr. Maslakova-Clauberg at nmc@interculturalstudies.ch, tel.+41 79 197 60 14 (Whats app).